LOCAL MATTERS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Lunch at Pepper's every day at 11 o'clock.

Gov. Caldwell's man Friday, Taz Hargrove, is in the city.

The oldest inhabitants say there is more sickness in the city than ever before known.

Our Mayor was the happy recipient of a very fine hat on yesterday from a friend in New York.

W. J. Edwards, local Editor of the Banner of Temperance, thinks of starting a newspaper at Oxford.

The Mayor's court room and station house ought to be rented out. It seems there will be no more use for either.

T. K. Wait, Esq., a member of the Raleigh Typographical Union, left last evening for Augusta, Ga.

Jno. N. Strong, Esq., Secretary of the State Insurance Company of Hannibal, Missouri, is stopping for a few days in the city.

The State Treasurer, David A. Jenkins, Esq., has recovered from his late illness, and arrived at the Capitol this morning.

We have in our office an Irish potato of the early rose variety, grown in the garden of J. R. Whitaker, Esq., this season that weighs one and half pounds.

Capt.-Col.-Judge—W. J. Clarke, of the State militia, is registered at the National.

A moneyed "rad" of the city will bet that Merrimon will not receive 10,000 majority, who will "go for him"? We would if we had the money.

Two gentlemen, prominent in business circles, indulged in a "little unpleasantness" on the street Saturday evening. No damage, only a scratch or two.

The Petersburg Progress objects to our crediting its matter to the Courier. Right neighbor, very right, but we locals are liable to get things a little mixed sometimes. "You know how it is yourself."

There are ladies in Petersburg, Va., named Sam, Pritchard, James D. Simmons, Alfred Harrison, and men whose names are Elizabeth Brown, Bettie Kirkland and Mary Bates, vide Saturday's Index—list of letters.

Improvements continue in every part of the city. We observe on Exchange place, North side, the retitting and repainting of the stores owned by the Messrs. Tucker. They are rendered entirely new in appearance and present quite handsome and attractive fronts.

SUNDAY.—The city was unusually quiet and well ordered on Sunday, not a single police arrest up to 12 o'clock at night. This is something new for Raleigh and somebody, the Mayor or Police are entitled to great credit for suppressing rows and brawls on the streets.

The heavy rain in the morning deterred many of the church goers from venturing out, but clearing off during the day, the usual large congregations were out at night. In accordance with the suggestion of the News, the Mayor has caused the various church yards and vicinity to be patrolled by Policemen during service, and loungers, idlers, loafers and curiosity stricken men and boys no longer disturb those sacred precincts by loud talking, whistling, and smoking at the doors and windows.

ANCIENT.—We were shown yesterday by Chas. E. Johnston, Jr., a copy of "The Bodie of the Common Law of England," by Edmund Wingate, of Grays Inne, Esq., published in London, in the year 1662. It was found by Mr. Johnson in the library of his grandfather, the late Judge Iredell. Its typographical appearance, though ancient in style, is neat, and displays first class workmanship in its execution.

OXFORD ITEMS.—Our Oxford correspondent under yesterday's date, furnishes us the following items of interest from his section:

Newspaper in Oxford.—There is a prospect of Oxford having a Newspaper soon. A number of persons have been corresponding with leading citizens here on the subject. Mr. Edwards, brother of Mr. Edwards, of Edwards & Bronghton, is now on a visit to this place, and is considering the feasibility of such an undertaking. We trust he will consent to come, as a paper properly conducted is much needed here.

Democratic Meeting.—There was a Democratic meeting held in Oxford on June 14th, Maj. J. T. Littlejohn presided as Chairman. Nothing definite was done, as it was deemed best to observe a course of "masterly inactivity" until after the action of the Baltimore Convention. There will be another meeting on the 13th of July, when some plan of conducting the campaign will doubtless be inaugurated.

Hon. A. W. Venable.—This distinguished citizen of Granville, is at present on a visit to his son, Col. T. B. Venable, of Oxford. He still retains much of his former buoyancy of spirit, yet the infirmities of age are visibly evident in his appearance. He has recently been on a visit to the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, of Warren. We are credibly informed that both of these gentlemen are supporters of Horace Greeley for President.

The People's Building and Loan Association.—We understand the members of this Association are paying up their dues with commendable promptness, and it is believed the attendance will be large at the next regular meeting, on Friday night, June 21st.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.—The Court delivered opinions on yesterday in the following cases:

By PEARSON, C. J.

Sol. W. Nash, et al., vs. W. & W. R. R. Co., from New Hanover. No error—judgment affirmed.

Lewis H. Horathall, et al., vs. Sherrod H. McRae, from Washington. Error—reversed.

By READE, J.

State vs. John Brown, from Robeson. Error—reversed.

Cannon, Stokesley & Co., vs. H. H. Robinson, et al., from New Hanover. No error—judgment affirmed.

By DICK, J.

Benj. Rush, et al., vs. Halcay Steamboat Company, from Cumberland. No error—judgment affirmed.

J. D. Williams, et al., vs. H. A. Munroe, from Cumberland. No error—judgment affirmed.

By BOYDEN, J.

State vs. Needham Pardie, et al., from Bladen. No error—judgment affirmed.

W. F. Lewis, executor, vs. G. W. Johnston, Administrator, from Pitt. Error—judgment reversed.

A CRUEL JOKE.—A Ventriloquist of the city on yesterday visited the store of an Auction and Commission Merchant on Fayetteville street, and stationing himself near the venerable "boss" of the house imitated the low talking and whisperings of persons on the second floor. The old gentleman after lending an attentive ear for a few seconds to the supposed robbers, ordered one of the young men to stand guard while he hurried to police headquarters, and soon returned with a couple of the "star" gentry. The advance on the enemy will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it. The old man, "armed and equipped as the case directs," leading up the stairway, the police with drawn "bills" all "eager for the fray."

The search behind boxes, and corners, in barrels and crates, was interrupted by peals of laughter below.

The police smelt something, not a "mice" but a "sell," and departed by the back door, enjoying the sell on the old "boss," who as yet has not been able to see "any fun in such foolishness."

FORGOT IT.—We have heard the expression, "that he would forget his head if it was detached from his body," but we never thought a man could possibly be so absent minded until this morning.

Father McNamara, of the Catholic Church, was called upon to solemnize the rites of matrimony between a couple from the Carey section, who appeared in front of the Church ready for the trying ordeal. "Your license, Sir," asked the Priest. The bridegroom, perfectly bewildered, his countenance exhibiting a pitiful scene of consternation and excitement, muddles out, "I forgot it," and reaching for his hat, he "pulls" for the clerk's office, requesting his intended to wait till "I come back."

She waited, the bridegroom returned with his license, the ceremony was performed, and the twin went their way rejoicing. We would advise the bridegroom for the future to apply himself studiously to the study of Pneumatics. Should he forget that he had a wife, a striking recollection of her might occur that would forever remedy the disease.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT, JUDGES BROOKS AND BOND PRESIDING.—MONDAY, JUNE 17th.

The Court opened at its usual hour, 10 o'clock.

The Civil docket was taken up, and as each case was called, upon the motion of attorney, was either continued or passed over for another day. The entire morning session was thus consumed, not a single case being tried.

Several indictments by the Grand Jury were reported, but owing to an order forbidding their publication, the reporters had to play "hands off."

In the afternoon session the case of the U. S. vs. Alexander Watson and sureties, brought by C. W. Woolen in the name of the U. S. for moneys collected as deputy collector, for which no return had been made; Strong and Smith appeared for defendants and sureties, W. A. Guthrie for plaintiff.

SUPREME COURT.—This body met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. All the Justices present except Justice Rodman.

The following cases from the Third District were taken up and disposed of: C. V. Swann, et al., vs. L. Barrington, adm., from Craven; continued under former order. Smith and Strong for the plaintiff. No counsel for the defendant. Jessie W. Broadway, et al., vs. J. A. Manges, Adm., from Lenoir; order for costs issued. Smith & Strong for the plaintiff. No counsel for the defendant.

D. A. & L. W. Humphrey, Executors, vs. R. W. Ward, Executor, et al., from Onslow; continued for issues. Smith & Strong for the plaintiffs, and Battle & Sons and A. G. Hubbard for the defendants.

Jno. N. Whitford and wife vs. Wm. Foy, G'n. and Adm., and five other cases; plaintiffs and defendants, the same, with about the same issues involved from Craven, were transferred to end of the docket. Smith & Strong for the plaintiff and J. H. Haughton for the defendant.

Henry Reeger vs. Jno. D. Davis, et al. from Carteret, transferred to the end of the docket. J. H. Haughton for the plaintiff; Smith & Strong & J. R. Batchelor for the defendants.

Henry King, Executor vs. Wilmington & Weldon R. R. Co., from Wilson, continued. Smith & Strong for the plaintiff and Moore & Gatlin for the defendant.

John Hughes vs. Francis Merritt and wife from Jones; argued. J. H. Haughton for the plaintiff; no counsel for the defendant.

Jno. W. Pelletier, Adm., vs. E. W. Sanders, Adm., et al. from Carteret; argued. J. H. Haughton for the plaintiff, and W. T. Faircloth for the defendant.

C. S. Wooten, administrator, vs. Jno. V. Sherrard, et al., from Wayne, argued. W. T. Faircloth for the plaintiff and Smith & Strong for the defendants.

M. J. Edwards vs. W. H. B. Taylor, et al., from Wayne. Compromised, terms to be filed for last term—nunc pro tunc No counsel for the plaintiff, Smith & Strong for the defendants.

John T. Seymour & Co., vs. S. Cohen and William Harris, from Wayne, argued. W. T. Faircloth for the plaintiff, Busbee & Busbee for the defendants.

William A. Blount vs. Wm. W. Carroway, from Lenoir, transferred to end of the docket. Phillips & Merrimon and Busbee & Busbee for the plaintiffs and Smith & Strong for the defendants.

W. H. Brogden vs. J. C. Privett, from Wayne, argued. S. W. Isler for the plaintiff and W. T. Faircloth for the defendant.

Henry Jarmon vs. R. W. Ward, from Onslow, argued. A. G. Hubbard and J. H. Haughton for the plaintiff, no counsel for the defendants.

MAJ. SEATON GALE'S.—It will be seen by the subjoined article taken from the Norfolk Journal of Saturday, that our honored townsman, Maj. Seaton Gales, has accepted the invitation to address the Old Fellows of Norfolk at their celebration on the 14th of July. Maj. Gales is one of the handsomest and most effective orators in the State, and that he will acquit himself with credit to the fraternity and honor to his State, no one doubts.

"We mentioned several days ago, that the Old Fellows of this city would celebrate on the Fourth of July next, the eighteenth anniversary of the laying of the corner-stone of their hall, and that the Hon. Seaton Gales, of Raleigh, N. C., had been invited to deliver the address. Last evening, a telegram was received from Mr. Gales, announcing his acceptance of the invitation. The hour for the delivery of the address has not yet been fixed, but we would suggest to the committee the forenoon of the day, as the weather will be more pleasant than in the evening."

A SCURVY POLITICAL TRICK.

What do the people of North Carolina think of the conduct of Governor Caldwell, who declined to make joint appointments with Judge Merrimon on the ground of ill-health, but as soon as Judge Merrimon published a list of appointments of his own, Caldwell at once made subsequent appointments at many of the places which Judge Merrimon had selected?

Caldwell is afraid to meet our candidate in open discussion. He declined to make joint appointments, but afterwards made appointments of his own in the track of our candidate!

His purpose no doubt is to attempt to undo Judge Merrimon's work, and to make false charges against our party, with the hope that they will not be answered.

But this trick cannot be played successfully. We call upon our public speakers to make appointments after Caldwell, inasmuch as he refuses to allow us a fair hearing at his appointments, and expose and denounce his slanders against the Democratic party.

We call upon our friends, wherever Caldwell will allow a reply, to answer him show and what manner of man he is, and what sort of a party he has the impudence to defend.

As he has declined to make appointments with our candidate, let every foot of ground he goes over be subsequently canvassed by able and influential speakers of our party, and let the false and slanderous charges he makes in his demagogical harangues on the stump, be laid bare to the public gaze.

A NORTH CAROLINA DETECTIVE LIKELY TO GET INTO TROUBLE.

The British lion is after Hester, of this city, and Cornell, the United States detectives and spies, who, it is alleged, recently knocked down Dr. Rufus Bratton, of South Carolina, in London, Canada, and then, after using chloroform upon him, took him insensible to Detroit, Michigan. When Dr. Bratton was taken to Detroit, process was served upon him, and he was brought a prisoner to appear before Judge Bond's Court in South Carolina. We are likely to get at the real facts in a short time, and if they be as represented, Grant will have to apologize, and certain United States officials will have to look out for squalls. Sins will "come home to roost," and impudence, cunning and rascality will not go always unwhipped of justice. Dr. Bratton is likely to go back to Canada, if he wishes—and certain reckless and unscrupulous agents of our Government, may have to go with him very unwillingly. We shall see. We copy the following from the proceedings in the Canadian Parliament:

OTTAWA, CANADA, June 12.—In the House, last night, Mr. Blake asked the Government to convey to the House any information in their possession in reference to the statement contained in The Press, to the effect that a person had been seized in open day in the city of London, Ontario, and carried to the American side, and whether there had been any communication on the subject with the United States or Imperial Government. Sir John Macdonald replied, that a few days ago, the Government was informed by telegraph, of the arrest of a person in the manner mentioned in the newspapers, and instructions were at once given to send down depositions and statements of facts and evidence. Those papers were received yesterday, and upon them a report had been prepared and submitted to her Majesty's Minister at Washington, in order that representation in the matter might be made to the United States Government, and a similar report had been prepared for the Imperial Government.

SENATOR SCHURZ'S CARD.

We must confess we do not quite understand the following card, signed by Senator Schurz and others, to which we referred on yesterday.

Our first impression was that Schurz was dissatisfied with Greeley's nomination, and desired to take some steps looking to his withdrawal, with a view of bringing out another candidate on the Cincinnati platform, who could more thoroughly unite the elements of opposition to Grant.

The Tribune thinks it does not mean opposition to the Cincinnati ticket, while the World thinks it does.

It is possible this new movement may have for its object the reconciliation of the disaffected Liberal Republicans—particularly the Germans, who seem not to be well disposed towards the Cincinnati ticket.

NEW YORK, June 6, 1872.

The undersigned desire to have a conference with the gentlemen who are opposed to the present administration, and its continuance in office, and deem it necessary that all the elements of the opposition should be united for a common effort at the coming Presidential election.

They respectfully invite you to meet a number of gentlemen belonging to the different branches of the opposition at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, on June 20, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of consultation, and to take such action as the situation of things may require.

Your attention is respectfully drawn to the fact that this invitation is strictly personal to yourself, and a prompt reply is earnestly requested, addressed to Henry D. Lloyd, secretary to the committee, P. O. Box 2209.

JUDGE SHIPP.

We surrender most of our editorial space to-day to the following card from Hon. W. M. Shipp, our candidate for Attorney General, in reply to the articles recently published in the Era and Asheville Pioneer, seeking to hold him responsible for the Swepson settlement.

It will be seen that Judge Shipp makes a triumphant vindication of himself from any collusion on his part with Swepson.

Judge Shipp says of Swepson: "I have never had anything to do with that individual, professionally or otherwise. I have never received a penny from him, directly, or indirectly."

Now that the charges of the Era and Pioneer are thus summarily disposed of, we shall expect these papers to correct their mis-statements, and thus do justice to a political opponent.

A CARD.

Several articles have recently appeared in the Carolina Era based upon a card published by V. S. Luske, Esq., which are intended to reflect upon, and injure me in public estimation, in a matter connected with the settlement of certain suits against G. W. Swepson. I have nothing to do with Mr. Luske's quarrel with Mr. Carter. In this communication I shall confine myself to a plain statement of facts, corroborated in every essential particular by Judge Battle and Mr. Batchelor. It is thought sufficient in these days to damn any man whose name is associated in the remotest degree with Swepson. So far as I am concerned, I can say without the least reservation that I have never had anything to do with that individual, professionally or otherwise. I have never had a business transaction of any kind with him. I have never received a penny from him directly or indirectly, and I have never had any correspondence with him or his friends, within my recollection, upon any matter in which he was even remotely interested. I have never had intercourse with him socially. I never conversed with him upon any political subject, and I do not know to-day what are his political views. I have never enquired.

A commission was appointed by the Legislature of 1868-'69 and was authorized to settle and compromise the claims of the Western Railroad against Swepson and Littlefield. The committee entered shortly after their appointment upon the discharge of their duties. After many months of negotiation they came to some terms of compromise. Of this I know nothing, except through the report of the chairman of that commission. Whether the settlement was wise or unwise is a matter for the public judgment. My connection with the matter commenced when a warrant was issued by Judge Pearson based upon an indictment found against Swepson and Littlefield in Buncombe Superior Court. At the request of Gov. Caldwell I proceeded to the case before Judge Pearson, assisted by Judge Battle and Mr. Batchelor. He was held to bail in the sum of $200,000. The case of course went to Buncombe county. It was then by law, placed in the hands of the Solicitor of the district. I neither had nor did I ever presume that I had any more control over the matter while pending in the Superior Court than any other member of the bar.

Some time after this arrest, Mr. W. W. Rollins, President of the Western Division of the Western N. C. R. Co., came to Raleigh and employed Judge Battle and Mr. Batchelor to bring suit against Swepson for a large amount of money due upon a bill of exchange for over one hundred thousand dollars, and also upon other claims, the particulars of which are stated in the statement made by Messrs. Battle and Batchelor. The suit was brought and he was again arrested and held to bail. This suit progressed in the usual way. Shortly afterwards, I do not know the precise date, the President of the Road, W. W. Rollins accompanied by Mr. Luske and A. T. Davidson, one of the Directors, came to Raleigh and had an interview with Judge Battle, Mr. Batchelor and myself. It was stated that a proposition had been made by Swepson to his friends, whereby a large amount of money could be secured to the road if the indictments could be dismissed. This proposition had been made elsewhere, perhaps, in New York. The question submitted to us was whether it was proper to recommend the acceptance of the proposition. The inducement held out was the peculiar condition of the country west of the mountains. It was represented in the language of Mr. Luske in his card, "That unless some such arrangement could be effected, the contractors and hundreds of laboring men, mechanics and farmers throughout the country would be hopelessly ruined." The question was presented for the opinion and advice of counsel here as to whether it was better to accept the proposition of Messrs. McAden and Robt. Swepson and thus obtain a large sum of money, which would greatly relieve the distress of the people of the West, or let the law take its course with the hope of the conviction and punishment of George Swepson. Let it be remembered that this proposition was made not by George Swepson, but by Messrs. McAden and Robt. Swepson, who it was understood would pay such sum as should be agreed on. The whole matter was fully and freely discussed. Major Rollins, President of the road, Mr. Luske, Solicitor of the 11th District, and by law prosecutor in the indictments therein pending, Judge Shipp, ourselves (Battle & Batchelor) and others being present and, as we thought, fully and freely and with entire understanding by all, discussing and canvassing the whole matter. After what was considered full discussion and consideration of the parties, as we then thought and still think, came to the conclusion that it was better for the interest of the State, the road and the people of the West, who were most interested in the matter, that if a compromise could be made and carried out such in all material points as that finally agreed on, to accept it. If any of the parties present at the discussion and consultation dissented from this understanding it was then unknown to us, and we had no reason to think that such was the case. We did not then see, nor do we now think, that anything would have been accomplished, unless with an understanding that if a proper compromise was agreed on, the Solicitor would assent to it and dismiss the prosecutions. His refusal to concur must, it seems to us, have put an end to the whole negotiation. We think the cash payment of $60,000.00 would hardly have been made as it was by Messrs. McAden and Robt. Swepson, not George, unless Mr. Luske's assent to the terms had been signified in some way.

Soon after this the agreement was signed by Mr. McAden, for himself and Robert Swepson, agreeing to pay the $60,000 cash. The $60,000 was soon after paid and the $60,000 in four and the $28,000 in six months from the 1st of May, 1871, with the other conditions in the said paper contained.

We, together with Judge Shipp being counsel for the road in the civil action, did recommend the acceptance of this proposition, and upon compliance therewith that the indictments be dismissed. This recommendation met the approval of the president and board of directors of the road, and of the commissioners appointed on the part of the State as aforesaid, one of whom was then the Judge of the 11th judicial district in which the indictments, or some of them were then pending. We supposed it met the approval of the Solicitor also, who had come to Raleigh with the president of the road and was present when it was discussed. The proposition was not made in Raleigh, but to parties outside of Raleigh, who came here for consultation as to its acceptance.

It having been complied with, as we are informed, a not pro was entered as to the indictments. If it had not been complied with, it is binding on nobody. Let it be remembered that it was a proposition by Messrs. McAden and Robt. Swepson to pay to the road $134,000, a part of the indebtedness of George W. Swepson. That Geo. Swepson had solemnly sworn before C. J. Pearson that he was wholly insolvent, without means, and no one seemed then to entertain any well grounded hope that any money could be made out of him even, with a judgment in the civil action. That the condition of a large number of persons in the West was represented to us in the strong language used above, to counterbalance all which, on the other hand, was only the hope of the conviction and punishment of George Swepson, for much labor and time was still to be expended before this desirable end could be arrived at.

We then thought, we still think, the course which we then advised was the best that could have been pursued under all the circumstances, and we do not now hesitate to avow this our decided opinion.

So far as we now remember, neither of us ever communicated with Geo. Swepson during the pending of the proposition. We understood that it was made and would be complied with by Messrs. McAden and Robt. Swepson. Geo. Swepson was not in Raleigh, so far as we know, at any interview on the subject.

We do not think any special responsibility for what was done should rest on Judge Shipp or Mr. Luske. They were only, as we thought, taking the same responsibility as rested on the other parties who acted in the matter. We are satisfied that they and the other persons acted in good faith, and with motives entirely proper. It seemed at the time to meet with general favor. To what extent it is now disapproved of, we have no means of knowing. We know that with pure motives we did what we thought was best, and we do not desire to escape from or throw on others any responsibility which may follow our deliberate acts.

One more fact. It seems to be considered or asserted in some quarters that Swepson was relieved of all responsibility to the road by this compromise. Such is not the fact, as the terms will show. The suit was for a specified demand, arising in part, out of the compromise made by the commissioners aforesaid. A part of the sum demanded in the suit was settled and the matters outside, amounting to $28,000. As to all other matters, so far as this agreement is concerned Swepson's liability to the road remains, in all respects, the same as it was before.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

In Rockingham, Caswell and Person counties the crop prospects are more flattering than have been known for many years.

In Catawba county a Baptist and Methodist congregation have swapped houses of worship. Is there another case on record of a church swap?

DEBARIAS, has a shoe blacking factory, that manufacturers an article fully equal to Mason's best. Frank Reams is the enterprising proprietor.

THE rads of Rowan and Davie, nominated as their candidates for the Senate, S. G. Ramsay, of Rowan, on Saturday last at Salisbury.

Col. W. A. Houtck and Captain Len Trexler, were nominated at Salisbury on Saturday by the Radicals of Rowan as candidates for the House of Representatives.

Judge Ship's majority in the Sixth Congressional District was 1,870. It is reasonable to suppose that our State ticket will more than double it this Summer.

JOHN SHANK, route agent on the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio R. R., was arrested and imprisoned at Statesville, on Saturday, for stealing three boxes of tobacco, the property of Mr. McIlwain, the manufacturer of Statesville.

THE Hon. A. M. Waddell was serenaded by his friends and admirers in Wilmington on Friday night at his residence. He appeared on the balcony and thanked them for the kindness bestowed on him, not only in the serenade but for nominating him for re-election to Congress.

Rev. H. Scott, the correspondent of the Danville Times says: "Caswell is the best of the border counties. I have been in part of the country, North, South, East and West, I now say with out hesitation that there are fewer handies and a larger number of handsome and well improved places, than in the fourteen I have visited."

Another Wife Murder—Supposed to be the Work of a Drunken Husband.

On Tuesday last Mrs. Mary Donigan went out "charring" and returned home to No. 513 West Third-third street about 5:30 in the evening. On arriving home she found her husband, Thomas Donigan, a laborer, lying on the bed intoxicated. The neighbors heard her say on opening the door of her apartment: "It is a burning shame, William, that I should be obliged to go out and slave all day, and for you to be lying in bed like that." No answer was returned, and in about five minutes Mrs. Donigan was seen to go out on the landing for a pail of water and to enter her room. In about a quarter of an hour William Donigan staggered out of the room, and went down stairs.

About 6:30 o'clock the son returned home, he found his mother lying in bed breathing heavily and insensible. A doctor was summoned who said she had been "crushed." Mrs. Donigan lingered till 8:30 A. M. on Wednesday and died without having recovered consciousness. Notice of her death was sent Captain Caffrey, who informed Coroner Herrman of the event, and on Thursday afternoon the body was removed to the Morgue.

Yesterday, Dr. Beach made a post-mortem examination of the body, and found a contusion on the back of the head, and that death was caused by hemorrhage in the substance of the brain. William Donigan was at the Morgue while the autopsy was being performed, and appeared very anxious to know the cause of death, but was not enlightened, and a warrant was issued for his apprehension last night.

A suspicious circumstance in the affair is, the position in which the woman was found in bed. Dr. Beach states that it would be impossible for a woman injured as Mrs. Donigan was, to get into bed, and the suspicion is that the husband struck her and then put her where she was found.—N. Y. Herald.

Jay Gould's Impending Ruin—Starting Disclosures Since the Erie Railroad Revolution—The New Management Bent on Jay Gould's Bankruptcy—The Partner of Risk to be Sued for $2,000,000.

Jay Gould, the late president of the Erie Railway Company, no sooner becomes relieved from the harassments of one suit at law than another is preparing against him—in the present instance a suit eclipsing in magnitude all others put together that have been brought against Gould. The Erie Railway Company are about to begin an action in the Court of Common Pleas against Gould, and the complaint asks relief for about $2,000,000. This suit is but the forerunner of about forty others, both civil and criminal, which are to be brought substantially upon the evidence elicited upon this investigation, and the total amounts claimed will amount to many millions of dollars. These vast amounts are claimed to have been realized by Gould and some of his associates in the mismanagement of the road when under their control. Soon after the great revolution in the Erie road last March, whereby General Sickles and the reform directors ousted Gould and his comrades substituted for them the present board, a meeting of the latter was held, at which it was resolved that the books and the actual condition of the road should be immediately investigated in order that its liabilities and resources might be accurately ascertained. This investigation has been going on ever since, and with astonishing results. The worst that has been said regarding Gould's use and abuse of the road for the advancement of his own personal ends has hardly exceeded the actual facts brought out by the investigation. The complaint in this case will be very voluminous, and it will probably cover several hundred pages of legal cap. It is understood that it will allege and set forth particular transactions of Gould with the company, whereby, in default of all principles of trust, as president of the Erie Railway Company, he made numerous contracts with Jay Gould (the individual) to the great loss of company whose interests he was appointed to guard. The complaint will also cite details of the improper use of the property of the company, whereby the company was injured and incurred great losses, and will charge Mr. Gould with the appropriation of valuable securities and other property belonging to the company and a failure to return the same. Should even the first of these suits be decided against Mr. Gould, it will undoubtedly involve him in hopeless bankruptcy.

FOR SALE. VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeview, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Over-seer's house, three cabins, corn-cris and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (1/4) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

MR. JAS. PIRSSON.

SIR:—The Piano which I purchased from you in September, 1870, is a very superior one. It has been frequently tested by competent judges, all of whom give unequivocal testimony to its excellence. I could not ask for a better instrument.

Very Respectfully,

W. G. SIMMONS.

RALEIGH, March 17, 1871.

MR. JAMES PIRSSON—Dear Sir: It affords me great pleasure to speak of the real merits and excellence of your Pianos—Great Union Piano Co. I have used one of your instruments in my music room ever since last August, 1871, and candor compels me to say that I do not know of another make which I should prefer to your Piano. The instrument keeps remarkably well in tune, and not a string has been broken. Hoping that the demand for your Pianos will never cease, I am yours most respectfully.

MAN.

The Human mind, that lofty thing,
The palace and the throne,
Where reason sits a scepter king,
And breathes its judgment tone;
Yet who with silent steps can trace
The borders of that haunted place,
Nor in his weakness own
That mystery and marvel blind
That lofty thing the Human mind?

The Human heart, that restless thing—
The tempted and the tried,
The joyous and the suffering—
The source of pain and pride,
The seat of Love—the altar of Hate;
Self-sung, self-deified;
And yet we hail thee as thou art,
Thou restless thing—the Human heart.

The Human soul—that startling thing,
Mysterious and sublime,
The angel sleeping on the wing,
Worn by the scowl of time;
The beautiful—the veiled—the bound,
The earth enshrined the glory crowned,
The smitten in its prime;
From Heaven, in tears, to Earth it stole,
That startling thing—the Human soul.

And such is man! Oh, ask of him,
The erring, but the true,
If o'er his vision, dream and dim,
The wrecks of time are driven;
If pride or passion, in their power,
Can stem the tide or turn the hour
Or stand in place of heaven?
He bends the brow, he bows the knee,
Creator, God, to none but Thee.

HIGH GRADE

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none.

Other manufacturers—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, (having a better record for cotton than those)—to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity, at any railroad depot in the State, or at this factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $20 cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as a true and reliable fertilizer. Testimonials furnished upon application. GUANO GUANO!! GUANO!!!

WALNUT HILL, N. C., Feb. 16, 1872.

Messrs. A. G. Lee & Co., Raleigh.

GENTLEMEN:—By your request, I herewith submit the result of an experiment on cotton, with different kinds of Guano purchased of you last season. I planted twenty rows, using on the 1st four nothing, on the 2nd four, 50 lbs of Peruvian, on the 3rd

four, 50 lbs of "Bat," on the 4th four, 50 lbs of "Phosphate" and on the 5th four, 50 lbs of "Peruvian" and 50 lbs of "Phosphate"

mixed (1-5 Peruvian and 4-5 Phosphate)—

the best of land all being of the same quality.

The Guano was all accurately weighed and when put in the cotton carefully weighed from each set of rows when picked out, and the cost of each kind of Guano correctly calculated; with interest at 8 per cent.

per annum added. Taking the first four rows (without Guano) as a basis, the following is the result:

Net profit on the 2nd four (Phosphate) on the money laid out, 7 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 3rd four (Peruvian) on the money laid out, 10 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 4th four (Bat) on the money laid out,

20 1/2 per cent.

Net profit on the 5th four (mixture) on the money laid out, 94 per cent.

The cotton was put at 6 1/2 cents per pound

in the seed.

Very respectfully yours,

A. T. MIAL.

We can furnish all the above kinds of Guano here at the following rates for cash:

Peruvian, $27 50 per ton.

Phosphate, 57 50

Waldo Fertilizer, 58 00 per ton.

Phosphate of Lime, 61 00 per ton.

Soluble Sea Island Guano, 61 00 per ton.

Soluble Ammoniated super-phosphate,

57 50 per ton.

Parties desiring it can get any of the above

at a small advance on the above prices, by making arrangements with us.
